BVC Logistics facilitates a historic first jewellery export shipment via courier

BVC Logistics facilitated India's first 4 jewellery exports from Caratlane via Air India from India to USA today.

This export was shipped one year after the government allowed jewellery exports via the Courier mode. Exports via the courier mode could be up to 70% cheaper than cargo mode, enabling thousands of jewellers across India to start e-commerce.

GJEPC, Adani Airport & Customs worked closely along with stakeholders across the G&J industry to make the unique solution a reality. The total export value was over $1000 cumulative to new buyers of Indian jewellery.

The government's ease of doing business initiatives continues for the jewellery industry, with another success after the India-UAE CEPA last year.

Bhavik Chinai, Group CEO, BVC Logistics said, "We're grateful to enable this historic moment. BVC has worked for over 8 years to make exports more economical and Team BVC is delighted to finally be able to facilitate that. We thank the government & GJEPC, our partners and team for finally making this happen and congratulate our industry for successful execution of this policy."

Robbery-related violence is on the rise!

Violence during robbery incidents is increasing everywhere, in stores, against sales agents on the roads and at various exhibition events. Recently, a secured courier company employee was murdered, a jeweler was murdered in Houston, and others were injured in various robbery incidents.

Violent events typically happen in two situations. One, where unskilled robbers use violence in the very early stages of the incident. And two, when robbers lose their temper and the incident ends with severe violence, due to individuals' defensive behavior in an attempt to fight over the goods and save them from being robbed.

We remind and recommend that robbers' instructions must be obeyed. No matter where an attack occurs - on the road, in the store or at offices. The merchant's role is to prevent the robbery, to detect tale signs of a coming attack, to understand at an early stage that an attack is about to take place, and in general - to always follow the rules of preventive behavior.

Nevertheless, if a robbery occurs, you should not try to prevent it; you should not try to resist; you should not try to "defeat" the robbers. Behave as calmly as possible and follow the instructions given by the attackers - any attempt to fight back may make the incident more violent.

Organised by the GJEPC, the India Pavilion at Asia World-Expo (AWE) from 18th-22nd September boasts an impressive 72 companies occupying 94 booths, exhibiting a wide range of products including Loose Diamonds, Gemstones and Lab-Grown Diamonds.

The second venue hosted at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition centre (HKCEC) from 20th-24th September, will feature finished jewellery, packaging solutions, tools and equipment, and jewellery industry-related technologies.

India Pavilion at Vicenzaoro September

The India pavilion at Vicenzaoro September, supported by the GJEPC, was spread over four separate halls at the show, interspersed with other Asian exhibitors, notably from Hong Kong.

The most prominent Indian exhibitors included some leading Surat-based diamond crafters and manufacturers, such as Hari Krishna and SRK, which reported moderate enquiries, with several of their key buyers absent as they were set to meet with them at the Hong Kong September show later this month.

A highlight of SRK's stand was a pair of exceptional GIA-certified H colour emerald-cut natural diamonds, each weighing 5.01 carats. One diamond was VS1 clarity and the other was VS2.

At their stand, Hari Krishna showed off an extraordinary ring that holds the Guinness World Record for featuring the most diamonds – 50,907 diamonds set in one ring.

Pink story: More Argyle type mines could exist, say scientists

Scientists say they now better understand how pink diamonds from the iconic Argyle mine were formed - which may allow them to predict the location of other sources in the future.

They say the clear stones got their distinctive color from the the clash of continents that formed the vast supercontinent Nuna, including Australia 1.85bn years ago. They were brought close to the Earth's surface by a series of eruptions when it splintered 1.3bn years ago.

The research team say the pink diamonds required a "perfect storm" of carbon, the right amount of pressure and the volcanic activity that brought them to the surface.

WGC members commit to enhanced supply-chain transparency

The World Gold Council today announced that its members, who represent the majority of the global large-scale gold mining industry, have committed to providing enhanced transparency in the gold supply chain.

All 33 World Gold Council members with operating mines, who collectively produce c.1,300 tonnes of gold per annum, have committed to publishing the names and locations of their refining partners on at least an annual basis, to include all operations where the primary revenue comes from the production of gold.

All members have also committed to joining the Gold Bar Integrity (GBI) platform and supply, on a confidential basis, “core data” on the gold they have produced to their refining partners. This ensures gold enters the Gold Bar Integrity platform “at source” and is a major step in the digitalisation of gold across the supply chain. It will provide the gold industry with a robust and verifiable ledger of responsibly mined gold, which will create significant opportunities for new product development and increase gold’s attractiveness as a trusted asset class for existing and new investors and customers.

CIBJO Report: Climate crisis impacts shallow-water reef corals

As the world jewellery industry converges on the 2023 CIBJO Congress in Jaipur, India, slated to open its doors on 3rd October 2023, the ninth pre-congress Special Report has been released.

This comprehensive report, prepared by the CIBJO Coral Commission, under the leadership of Vincenzo Liverino, sheds light on the persistent confusion between precious coral varieties and their climate-endangered reef counterparts.

Liverino underscores the pressing need for accurate coral terminology, as outlined in the CIBJO Coral Blue Book. This authoritative source meticulously categorises precious coral into just three groups, all of which belong to the Corallidae family: Corallium, Pleurocorallium, and Hemicorallium.

Under this stringent definition, the majority of coral species, including those occasionally found adorning jewellery, are classified by CIBJO as ‘common corals’, he affirms. Furthermore, the Blue Book categorisation excludes thousands of other coral species, notably those shallow-water reef corals currently grappling with the dire effects of climate change.

US jewellery sales to fall over the holiday season: Mastercard SpendingPulse

mastercard

Revenue for the category will drop 0.3% year on year between November 1 and December 24, Mastercard projected Tuesday. Out of five spending categories, jewellery was the only one for which the company predicted a sales decline.

"While the consumer of holidays past may have been a consumer trying to find footing in a rapidly shifting economy, the consumer of holidays present has taken their power back," said Michelle Meyer, US chief economist for the Mastercard Economics Institute. "We expect these individuals to impressively navigate the holiday season, making choices and trade-offs that best suit their lifestyles."

Spending for the two months will also be affected by an unfavorable comparison with the same period a year ago, when inflation caused a sharp rise in prices, consumers had excess savings, and there was a healthy amount of pent-up demand, Mastercard noted.
